Firhill Chatter

This evening we extend a very warm Glasgow welcome to all of our visitors from Bolton. We trust that the management, directors, team and travelling supporters enjoy their visit north of the border.

The courtesies are, of course, restricted to off-the-field activities, for we would like to win tonight and so gain a place in the semi-finals of the Anglo-Scottish Cup tournament.

The foundations for a Firhill victory were laid at Bolton two weeks ago. That night we faced an aggressive all-out attacking Bolton side and successfully contained their prolific scoring machine. Aware of the insignificance of "away" goals in this purely domestic competition we had to ensure that tonight's match started level giving us home ground advantage in this sudden death encounter.

A result must be achieved tonight—the game goes to extra time and penalties if necessary—so both sides must open out of defence and go for goals. This should provide exciting viewing for the spectators and we would hope that the now famous Firhill choir will give our lads the necessary lift with their vocal support.

At Bolton we witnessed the aggressive skills of former England star Peter Thompson as he blazed down the wing. We also found exciting, the creative skills of Scotland's World Cup pool member, Willie Morgan and the defensive skills of Ireland's Tony Dunne. They proved to be a really competent if somewhat cosmopolitan side.

But, of course, tonight it is a completely different ball game. Admittedly we again expect our visitors to push forward with Whatmore and Allardyce backing up the strikers. But we aim to see that centre-half Paul Burke is busily employed rather further back this evening. We attempted to play mainly on the break at the previous meeting but you can look for much more aggression from us here at Firhill.

Doug Somner and Jimmy Melrose, who both scored against Motherwell, will commit the Bolton defenders at the back and with a bit more width being added to our play the whole pattern of the game will be completely changed.

And our visitors will encounter, for the first time, the combined skills of John Craig and Harry Johnston. This pair have immediately struck up a fine understanding and when linked to the attacking moves of the brothers Hansen they could generate enough drive to command the midfield and so provide a sound base for victory.

Spectators should enjoy an exciting game and although Partick Thistle will receive most of the vocal backing we know that our support is knowledgeable and sporting enough to acclaim such a skilful visiting side.

Meet the Wanderers' Players

Barry Siddall, goalkeeper. Member of Don Revie's England Under-23 squad last season. Is a tall, agile player who played in all the Wanderers' 49 League and Cup games last season.

John Ritson, full-back. Club skipper, John was born in Liverpool and came to Bolton from schoolboy soccer. Graduated through the junior sides and is now a strong defender who likes to attack down the flank.

Tony Dunne, full-back. Eire international who played for most of his career with Manchester United. Was a member of the European Cup-winning side and since coming to Bolton has proved to be a favourite with the fans.

Roy Greaves, midfield. Roy has completed 10 years with the Wanderers and had a testimonial game in the close season. He is a non-stop worker in midfield and is one of the few players to come from the Bolton area to join the Wanderers.

Paul Jones, centre-half. Born in Ellesmere Port, Cheshire. Paul is another player who has been called on by England boss Don Revie to join the Under-23 squad—last season he had a trip to Budapest with them. He is a commanding player in the middle of the defence and is very good in the air.

Sam Allardyce, centre-half. Born in Birmingham, Sam is one of the "finds" of last season. It was his first full season and he emerged as an outstanding defender and was voted "Player of the Year" by the Wanderers' supporters.

Willie Morgan, winger. Started his career with Burnley then moved to Manchester United for a big fee. He returned to Burnley and was signed by the Wanderers towards the end of last season. A Scottish international and member of the last World Cup squad.

Neil Whatmore, striker. Strong attacker with a flair for scoring goals. He hit 13 goals last season to become the club's joint top scorer. Is good in the air.

Garry Jones, striker. Manchester-born Garry had his best season for some time scoring 13 goals. He is a strong running attacker who has the ability to put pressure on defenders.

Peter Reid, midfield. Another young player who came to the fore last year. Peter was discovered playing for Huyton schoolboys and graduated through the junior sides to win a regular place in the first team. Reads the game well and is a fine passer of the ball.

Peter Thompson, winger. Peter is the former Liverpool and England winger who has won most of the honours in the game. A very tricky player, he is another who is a firm favourite with the supporters.

John Byrom, striker. John has been a regular scorer over the years for the Wanderers after signing from Blackburn Rovers ten years ago. Is due to take his testimonial.

Mike Walsh, defender. Mike is Manchester-born and joined the club from school. He has yet to win a regular place in the side but is equally at home either in midfield or at full-back.

Brian Smith, midfield. Born at Walkden, near Manchester, Brian is a hard-working player who is on the verge of gaining a place in the side. Made a handful of appearances last season.

Hugh Curran, striker. Scottish international who missed most of last season because of a series of knee operations. He regained full fitness in the last month of the season and is looking forward to making his mark in the new season.

Alan Waldron, midfield. Alan was unable to earn a regular place in the side last season. Speedy, skilful player, he spent the summer in America where he played for Chicago Stings.

draw

Unlike the European Cup competitions, in which goals away from home count double if the aggregate scores are tied after two matches, the Anglo-Scottish Cup competition is decided on internal rules. Therefore, should today's match finish as a draw, then extra time will be played. Fifteen minutes each way is the stipulated time. If the teams are level at the end of extra time, then the match will be decided on penalty kicks, according to the international ruling.

Both teams will be required to take five kicks apiece, in alternating order. If a winning margin has been achieved before the end of this sequence then the final kick(s) may not be required to be taken. But if teams are still level at the end of this sequence then alternate penalty kicks shall be taken, using the remaining players, until a winning margin has been established after both sides have taken the same amount of penalty kicks. Only players on the field at the end of the game may be used, and no player may take a second penalty kick until all other players have taken a kick.

The winner of tonight's clash will go forward to the "all-in" semi-final draw. The tie will be settled on a home and away basis with the matches being played on 20th October and 3rd November.

The final, again home and away, will be contested on 24th November and 8th December.

The Scottish entrants to the Anglo-Scottish Cup competition were the top four teams in the Premier division who did not qualify for the European Cup competitions and the top two teams in the First and Second Divisions. The English League based their qualifiers on similar lines. The competition allows for two substitutes one of whom must be listed and played only as a goalkeeper.

"The Jags"

The centenary history of Partick Thistle Football Club.

Partick Thistle is Glasgow's other football club. In a city whose bitter devotion to the game is unrivalled throughout the world the Jags inspire genteel affection. Their home, famous Firhill, is a place for the thinking man.

In a hundred years Thistle have contrived to win only two major Scottish trophies—the Scottish Cup in 1921 and the Scottish League Cup in 1971—but that hardly matters to the fans. The Thistle supporter can be spotted not so much by his red and yellow scarf as by his shaking head and rueful smile.

Celtic and Rangers may have won the honours, but Thistle have won the battle for the hearts and minds of every Maryhill man, and thousands more further afield. This official record of the club's centenary is more a celebration than a statistical record of stunning achievements.

The author, Ian Archer of the Glasgow Herald, is a native of Maryhill. He writes about all the famous names through ten decades—Willie Paul, Alec Raisbeck, Jimmy Gibson, Peter McKennan, Davie McParland, Alan Rough—and tells some of the many legendary tales about a very special football club. Now it can all be told.

Copies available from the Club or your local newsagent or bookseller. Publication date—27th September. £1.25 net.

Linesmen—

A. Nairn, Hardgate.

John Craig, Alan Hansen and Alan Rough will be at John Menzies, Buchanan Street on Thursday, 30th September, between 12.30 and 1.30 p.m. to sign copies of The Jags. The author, Ian Archer, will also be there if a prior commitment in Zurich allows it.
